

Hi Beanstalks!

If you want to print out the Bean Pod* to look like a book:

1. Print out the pages (you might check the “reverse order” box when you print so the end product is a pile of spreads in the right order, with the cover on top, and the Calendar page right under it. Otherwise you’ll have to put the pages in order yourself.

2. Then take the cover page, place it face down on the table and put the stack (with the Calendar page being on top) on top of the faced-down cover page.

3. Staple in the corner, and fold in half like a booklet, and you’ll have the closest thing you can get to a booklet without using a saddle stitcher!

*If you want to save your color ink, you can print it in black and white.

NEW EDITOR NEEDED

Linda Kamphausen is stepping down as Bean Pod Editor after 3 years of service.

It's time she stopped hogging the privilege of Editor and give someone else a chance. So we are looking for someone fresh and new to carry the Editor torch. Since the Bean Pod is now digital and almost all of us know how to use a computer, this shouldn't be considered a monumental task. The Bean Pod, as it is now, is published using Adobe InDesign, and if the new Editor has that capability, they can use past Bean Pods as templates and drop in the new info. Otherwise the Bean Pod can be redesigned in Word or whatever application the new Editor wants to use.

Linda will be finishing out her term effective January 1st, 2009.
The January Bean Pod will be her last.

REMEMBER, THE DEADLINE FOR THE JANUARY BEANPOD IS DECEMBER 19TH!

To schedule your event, contact our Social Director Jane Zanichkowsky at 617-244-6079 or social@hubtall.org

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

by Marie Austin, BBTC President

The first weekend in November several of us from the BBTC attended the Central Jersey Tall Friends "Harvest Moon Weekend in the Poconos". We even won one of the travel awards; the one that is based on number of people, number of miles, and percentage of membership. There were a total of about 35 people that attended for some portion of the weekend. I carpoled with Jan and Susan. It only took us 4.5 hours from their house. I was pleasantly surprised. I thought it would be longer.

The resort was quite rustic and somewhat run down. But the price was relatively cheap, the place was clean, the hotel rate included breakfast and dinner, and the food was good. Unfortunately the weather was not very cooperative. It rained or misted pretty much all day on Saturday. It of course got clear and sunny for the drive home on Sunday. There were a couple of hearty souls that went hiking in spite of the rain, but most of us did things like go to the local casino and peruse some of the local shops such as a pretzel factory and a chocolate shop. Saturday night was the usual dinner and dance, followed by after-hours.

It sounds like Central Jersey will be doing this same weekend again next year, so if you're interested in a weekend that's relatively inexpensive and not a plane ride away, I highly recommend it. Just be prepared for rustic.

Moving on to local events; Kay is busily putting together our anniversary dinner/dance on January 17th. Once again we will be going to the Crowne Plaza in Natick. Be on the lookout for more details and early bird discounts elsewhere in this newsletter and/or the club website.

In closing I'd like to request your assistance. We currently have three open positions on the Board: Editor, Membership, and Marfan Liaison. If any of these are something you would be willing to take responsibility for, please give me a call or send me an e-mail. Think outside the box; I remember several years ago we had a team of editors in an effort to keep the workload down to a level they could each manage.

Till next time,

Marie

BBTC President

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY BEANSTALKS — LET'S DANCE!!

By Kay Helberg

Mark the date gang – Saturday, January 17th is the Annual Boston Beanstalks Anniversary Dinner Dance. This is ALWAYS my favorite event of the year, as we can dress up in our finery, have a yummy dinner and then dance the night away! I'm happy to report that this year's event will again be held at the Crowne Plaza in Natick. It's a great hotel with a central location for our Beanstalk friends and our buddies from other Tall Clubs. We chose the long weekend so that travel will be easier for the out of towners. The best part of the Anniversary Dinner Dance is the opportunity to see friends we haven't seen in a while.

As our lives get busier I know it's harder to make the effort to commit to going out for the evening. But this is what the Tall Club is all about – dancing, laughing, making new friends and catching up with old friends. It's helpful to have at least ONE event a year where we know we can see our favorite people. So PLEASE mark the date on your calendar and commit to spending it with the Boston Beanstalks. When you think about it, the cost of $50 is really quite a reasonable price for a night of dinner, dancing and good friends. And we'll also have some great door prizes too!

As is tradition we will be having a Sunday brunch the following morning. Since Karl & I have missed a lot of events this year because we've been working on some home renovations, we thought it would be fitting to host the Sunday brunch in our new and improved home!!! (Plus last year we got stuck with a verrry long wait at a restaurant and I swore I wouldn't let that happen again!)

So, sign up sooner than later (as we Tall-Clubbers always tend to put off RSVP'ing for things!) and get out your dancing shoes. See you on January 17th if not before...
