

Hi Beanstalks!

If you want to print out the Bean Pod* to look like a book:

1. Print out the pages (you might check the “reverse order” box when you print so the end product is a pile of spreads in the right order, with the cover on top, and the Calendar page right under it. Otherwise you’ll have to put the pages in order yourself.

2. Then take the cover page, place it face down on the table and put the stack (with the Calendar page being on top) on top of the faced-down cover page.

3. Staple in the corner, and fold in half like a booklet, and you’ll have the closest thing you can get to a booklet without using a saddle stitcher!

*If you want to save your color ink, you can print it in black and white.

If undeliverable please return to:

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

by Marie Austin, BBTC President

Good news! I sold the last of the Men of TCI calendars that I purchased for the BBTC. If anyone missed out and still wants a copy, contact Megan Lukens directly to see if she has any left. Her e-mail address is pdxme-gandhl@comcast.net.

We have one new member this month, Alex Bosse. If you attended the New Year's Eve Gala this year, you probably met him. On his membership application, Alex said he is "an open minded – fair hearted person who enjoys good friends & times." He also indicated "upfront honesty"

Last month I mentioned Jeanne Smith as a new member, but didn't have her membership application yet. This month we now have that, so here's what she had to say about herself:

I love books, rock and roll, movies, politics and museums. I'm a history buff. I'm fluent in Brazilian Portuguese, and I used to read novels in the original French. My 2 daughters are 'officially' grown. I like little kids and babies and know how to entertain them".

Additionally, Jeanne has been a member of the team putting out the Bean Pod for February and March.

It's St. Patrick's Day Parade time again! Please consider showing your support by marching or riding with our group. Former Miss Tall Boston's, get ready to break out the old sash and crown. More details on the parade can be found elsewhere in this Bean Pod.

Till next time,

Your "Traveling Fool" President

Marie

BBTC SECRETARY'S REPORT

By Elaine Senay 2/2/2009

Meeting called to order at 7:05 p.m.

Present: Marie Austin, Kay Helberg, Jan Huffman, Susan Huffman, Kathy Lewis, Sylvia Martin, Craig Scherman, Elaine Senay, and Jeanne Smith.

OFFICER'S REPORTS:

PRESIDENT: Marie Austin reported that she, Linda Kamphausen and Jeanne Smith, our prospective new Editor candidate, put together the February Bean Pod after the Huffman's Groundhog Day Party. There was a general discussion of software options for the Bean Pod.

VICE PRESIDENT: Kay Helberg reported that the Anniversary Dinner Dance went well and everyone seemed to have a good time. The DJ who played for us would like to join as a member. Brunch at the Helbergs the following day was well attended in spite of the snowy weather. We will need to find out from John Bewick how the club did financially from the event.

SECRETARY: Previous minutes were accepted as written.

TREASURER: John Bewick was not present, but sent a report by email. He is preparing the Anniversary Dinner Dance report and a 2009-2010 budget.

WEBMASTER: Jan Huffman was not present, but sent a report by email. The website (www.hubtall.org) has been updated with current events. Until the Editorship transition is complete, he will direct emails sent to editor@hubtall.org to Marie, Linda and Jeanne.

HISTORIAN: Craig Scherman reported last month that Doris Chickering, TCI Archivist, is asking us to send her a CD of our 2008 issues of The Bean Pod for the archives. Marie will ask Linda to take care of this.

DATABASE: Craig Scherman reported that he would like to be able to run a report specifically so that we can calculate the proper number of members in our club in order to pay our annual dues to TCI.

SCHOLARSHIP: Kathy Lewis was present – nothing specific to report. It was noted that we have approximately $500.00 to award to this year's recipient and we need to update the scholarship dates and deadlines on the website.

SOCIAL: Sylvia Martin reported that we need to make plans for the club's annual appearance at the South Boston St. Patrick's Day parade. Susan Huffman contacted Wini Peterson during the meeting by phone about the application form. Wini advised that we include a $100.00 donation with the application. Perry Raffi will be contacted about our being able to use his truck. Usually, club members march in the parade and go afterwards to the Fowler House in Quincy for a late lunch/early dinner. There was some general discussion about holding the clubs' Coast-to-Coast Toast on May 3rd at the restaurant and maybe combine it with a historic walk of the city. We are looking for hosts for an Oscar Watching party and a Games Night in April. Also, it was decided that the next Dinner and A Movie Meet-up event will be on Wednesday, March 17th, since Marie will be out of town and won't be able to host it the prior Tuesday.

TCI DELEGATE: Arthur Tunnell was not present – no report. Marie noted that Arthur has told her that he does not plan to attend Convention this year. We will see if any club members will be going and are willing to be our delegate.

NEATO: Kay Helberg was present - nothing new to report at this time. Kay asked that the minutes reflect our club's appreciation to Pedro Hazel, of the Tall Club of New York City, for his continued service to NEATO as its president.

EDITOR: Jeanne Smith is learning about the Editor's position with help from Linda and Marie.

PUBLICITY: Wini Peterson was not present – nothing to report other than what was discussed via telephone regarding the St. Patrick's Day parade arrangements.

MARFAN: This position is still open and we are looking for a volunteer. Cindy Wicklein, a former member, had contacted Marie about our selling raffle tickets on behalf of the Massachusetts chapter. There was a general discussion and it was decided that we have limited resources right now and we have already participated in the "Men of TCI" calendar fundraiser for the National Marfan Foundation. Marie noted that she has one more calendar available for purchase at $19.99.

MEMBERSHIP: Marie Austin has been following up with prospective members – several of whom first found out about us from the Portland, Maine weekend, however she stressed that we really need someone to fill this position.

OLD BUSINESS: Elaine checked the club's post office box and we received the reimbursement check from TCI to cover half of Miss TI's airfare for the Campaign Capers Weekend.

TCI is putting together a quilt as a fundraiser for the TCI Foundation. Our club has been asked to contribute a square for it. Donna Nowak, a former member and Miss Tall Boston 1993, has kindly volunteered to make the square for us.

NEW BUSINESS:

After a general discussion, those present elected John Bewick as chair of our 2009 Weekend and have him put together a proposal.

Meeting adjourned at 8:30 p.m.
