

Hi Beanstalks!

If you want to print out the Bean Pod* to look like a book:

1. Print out the pages (you might check the “reverse order” box when you print so the end product is a pile of spreads in the right order, with the cover on top, and the Calendar page right under it. Otherwise you’ll have to put the pages in order yourself.

2. Then take the cover page, place it face down on the table and put the stack (with the Calendar page being on top) on top of the faced-down cover page.

3. Staple in the corner, and fold in half like a booklet, and you’ll have the closest thing you can get to a booklet without using a saddle stitcher!

*If you want to save your color ink, you can print it in black and white.

MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

by John Bewick, BBTC President

Hi.

There is a lot of big news this month. A pageant is being planned for January, and there are five Queen Contestants? Wow! We had a harvest dance for the first time in several years. Three new members joined the club!

November was an exciting month. Thirty people attended the harvest dance. I was not able to attend due to back problems, now resolved. Everyone I talked to said they had a really good time. Since the last harvest dance was several years ago, it is a big deal to be doing one again. I think I speak for everyone when I say, "Thank you, Sylvia and Sue and everyone else who made the dance possible."

In addition to all of us enjoying the dance, we hope to use the dances as a recruitment opportunity. Much of the money we are saving by having an electronic newsletter is going to subsidize dances. I am very happy to hear that it went so well.

Let me take this chance to welcome the three new members: Bud Albrecht; Alyson Humphreys; and Laurie McGlone. I know everyone is ecstatic that they have joined!

I know we have all enjoyed having pageants, and to have one this January with five contestants is so great it puts me at a loss for words. The last pageant was attended by fifty people. How great would it be to have that many people attend! The pageant is a lot of fun, with all of its unique events and excitement.

There are several events this month. The bird walk at Salisbury Beach, which happens to be my favorite beach. A Tuesday night dinner and movie. The Resolution Ball, which I can tell you from personal experience is a great deal of fun.

Have a great holiday season!

JOHN

Scholarship: Kathy reported that there have been inquiries made regarding the Scholarship, some from unqualified potential applicants. The Scholarship is currently un-funded.

Vice President:

Fall Dance: venue confirmed for November 21, 2009, at the Sullivan VFW Post, 633 Trapello Road, Waltham, MA. This is a brand-new building, very nice and cheery on the corner of Trapello and Marguerite. Dance will be held from 7:30-11:30 PM. Discussed cost of DJ and price for dance tickets, pre-dance and at the door. Motion passed to have a "Split the Pot" raffle at this event to begin funding the Scholarship Fund.

Pageant: Discussion whether to have or not to have a pageant. There are two known interested potential contestants. Marie stated that it was determined last year that only two were needed to hold a pageant. There was a proposal made to form a committee to determine the feasibility of having a pageant at the Anniversary Dance.

Susan Huffman will be sending an e-mail to invite potential committee members to a meeting at her home this week. (Week of 11/2-11/6.)

Secretary: Motion to accept the September & October Minutes in Kay's absence. Because Kay was not present at this meeting, minutes were taken by Susan Huffman to be typed by Sue Flynn.

SHELLED FROM THE BEANPOD

by Jeanne Smith, Bean Pod Editor

Hi, fellow Beanstalks.

Hey, Beanstalk friends – I'm glad you will be getting this before the first Beanstalk event of December 2009, something I consider almost a miracle, given the time of year. Once Thanksgiving arrives every year, the craziness begins on that day and doesn't let up until at least Martin Luther King's Birthday in mid-January. Yeah, I managed to get to Thanksgiving Dinner somewhere close to acceptably late, with my assigned dishes in a somewhat edible state, and I did manage to get a start on the holiday baking. I once again avoided the Black Friday shopping lunacy – I really don't enjoy cruising mall parking lots for the right princess space. Besides, I hear the stores are still open on Christmas Eve – so what's the big rush?!

Last year I switched up the usual semi-tedious holiday events I'd been doing for years and added in Beanstalk celebrations – events that got me off the couch, out of the house, and shaking it up. My hope is that my holiday traditions and winter activities have a lot more to do with shaking it up and a lot less with holing up at home.

Speaking of shaking it up, there WAS A LOT of shakin' goin' on November 21 at the Harvest Dance. Check out a couple of pictures of those of us who were there having a very good time. Kudos to the organizers, Sylvia & Sue F. – I, among others, got a lot of exercise on that dance floor. The venue was great – facilities-wise and people-wise. I hope we go back there soon – it's just three miles from my house!

As I look forward to our upcoming Beanstalk events, I see the Resolution Ball on New Year's Eve and our anniversary dance on January 16. Hey, here's my challenge to you – plan to make 2010 a great year, shaking it up with your Beanstalk buds.

Walk tall.
